I AM A YOUNG LEADER CREATING CHANGE IN MY COMMUNITY.
Public Allies is a social justice organization committed to changing the face and practice of leadership by recruiting and training talented young leaders, with a passion for social impact, to create meaningful change in our community.

Anyone over the age of 17 with a high school diploma or GED, and who is a U.S. citizen or has permanent residency, is welcome to apply. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis; applicants are encouraged to apply early for priority consideration.

Public Allies are expected to commit to and complete an intensive 10-month program, requiring a minimum of 1,700 hours of service. Allies are deployed to work with leading social entrepreneurs and cause leaders including; leaders in government, nonprofits, and private sector social enterprises, with focus areas including health, housing, arts, philanthropy, and civic engagement.

Public Allies Baltimore is a program of Baltimore Corps, and a proud member of the AmeriCorps national service network.

Who can be a Public Ally

Your benefits

- $16,500 stipend received in monthly instalments for the duration of the program
- Access to health care and child care
- $6,095 monetary education award after program completion to pay back student loans or pay for future education for any two year or 4 year institution
- Most AmeriCorps members are also eligible for forbearance or deferment of student loans

Your commitment

Applications due June 1st

Questions? Email Hello@baltimorecorps.org

Facebook.com/baltimorecorps
Instagram.com/baltimorecorps
Twitter.com/baltimorecorps

The Ally program is available to all, without regard to race, color, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, religion, age, disability, criminal record, political affiliation, marital or parental status, military service, community, or social affiliations. We work hard to ensure our program is as diverse as possible.